

7 Simple Steps to Claiming Your Blackboard Account

Please allow at least 3 business days, from your application date, to claim your blackboard account.

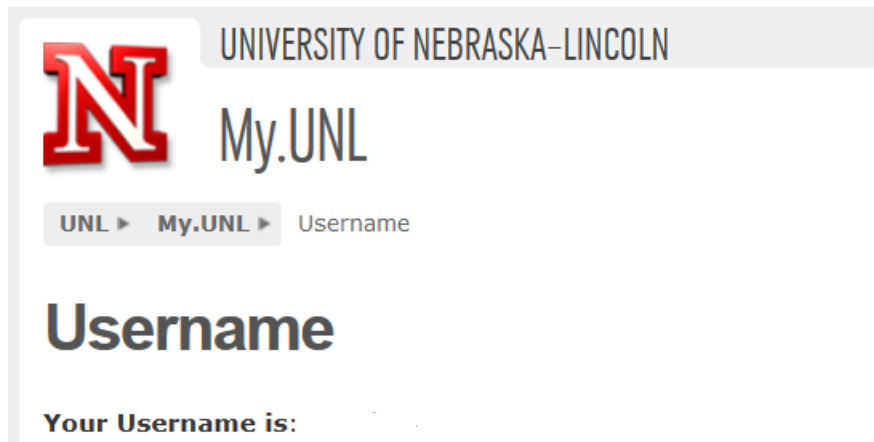

1. Log in to MyRed using your NU ID number and the password you created while completing your application.
2. Click on the 'ACADEMICS' tab in the red tool bar

3. Scroll down to IMPORTANT LINKS and click on the 'MY.UNL' tab

4. This will give you your user name

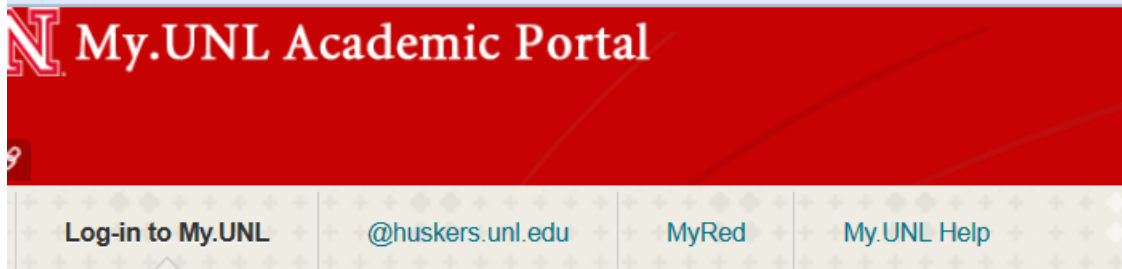

5. Click on the My.UNL Academic Portal (Blackboard)

Your My.UNL Username and password is used to access many UNL services, such as:

- the My.UNL Academic Portal (Blackboard)
- Active Directory
- downloading licensed Anti-Virus tools
- UNL-shortening service
- wireless network registration

6. You will be linked to the My.UNL page. At this time you will need to follow the instructions for creating or claiming your blackboard account.

Scroll to the bottom and find:

Trouble logging in?

Those new to campus will need to create an identity at <https://id.unl.edu/>

That identity needs to be claimed at <https://id.unl.edu/claim>

If you have forgotten your password, you can re-set it here: <https://id.unl.edu>, send a request for help to mysupport@unl.edu, or call the help center at 472-3970.

For more information, contact Jeremy Van Hof: jvanhof@unl.edu

7. Once you have completed these steps you can log in to your blackboard account on the My.UNL.edu web page:

Blackboard Info

Spring 2015 courses are now available
Faculty: If you do not have access to a course that you are teaching, please contact your department and make sure they have informed Registration and Records that you are the Instructor of Record for that course. Once that is done, you will automatically be given Instructor access to your course.

Students: If you do not have access to a course that you are taking, it is possible that your instructor has the course set to unavailable while they are getting ready for Spring semester. Please contact your instructor.
