

Field Trip Policy

The University reserves the right to determine the requirements necessary for student participation in university-sponsored field trip courses. In no instance will these criteria for enrollment violate the University's non-discrimination policy.

Students participating in university-sponsored field trips are expected to conform to the same standards of appropriate behavior as published in the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture Student Handbook and other university publications pertaining to student rules and regulations. The University expects each student to exercise self-discipline, which will enhance the educational experience and the learning environment for all field trip participants. Students are expected to obey the laws of state and nation, and the regulations of the University, and to refrain from any conduct while on the field trip that is injurious to themselves, to others, or to the reputation of the University.

Any violation of published rules and regulations of the University, the student code of conduct as expressed in the Student Handbook, or of local, state or federal laws may result in disciplinary action or sanctions by the University. Failure to comply with the lawful direction of university personnel acting in the performance of their duties may also result in disciplinary action by the University. The University reserves the option of initiating disciplinary action on its own including the dismissal of the student in the midst of the field trip experience and requiring the student to return to the campus at his or her own financial expense. Any subsequent disciplinary action resulting from the field trip misconduct will be in accordance with established rules and regulations of the University. In the event dismissal action is taken on the field trip, the University will contact the person previously designated by the student to be notified in the case of an emergency.

Violations of state criminal statutes or any unlawful action on the part of the student while participating in the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture field trip will require the University to immediately notify local law enforcement authorities.
