

NCTA LOW-STRESS CATTLE HANDLING WORKSHOP

MARCH 30 – NCTA CAMPUS 6 P.M.
LIVESTOCK TEACHING CENTER

NCTA Collegiate Cattlemen, NCTA Stock Dog Club, and Outback Stock Dog Association are sponsoring a free public workshop to educate cattle producers and stock dog owners about Low-Stress Cattle Handling. Juan Reyes of Wheatland, Wyo., will demonstrate how to use livestock dogs in a low-stress manner.

Dr. Kip Lukasiewicz, veterinarian of St. Paul, Neb., with Production Animal Consultants, will demonstrate use of a "Bud Box" and handling cattle as a stockman on foot. Supper 6 P.M. ~ Workshop 6:30 P.M.

WEDNESDAY
MARCH 30, 2016

FREE WILL SUPPER
STARTING AT 6 PM

SUPPER PROCEEDS WILL BENEFIT SPONSORING CLUBS

FREE WORKSHOP NO RSVP NEEDED

OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS AND THE PUBLIC

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED
PRESENTERS

Additional information is available from NCTA
at 1-800-3-CURTIS, Judy Bowmaster-Cole
at jbowmaster1@unl.edu

or Jo Bek at tbek1@unl.edu