NCTA announces Honor Roll

CURTIS, Neb. – The Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture at Curtis announced academic honors for the fall semester of 2018 with 66 students on the Honor Roll.

Honor Roll students earn a grade point average of 3.50-3.99.

“I congratulate these hard-working students, and appreciate the commitment they make to their classes and college experience here at NCTA,” said Ron Rosati, NCTA dean.

Students must be fulltime enrollees, with at least 12 credit hours for the semester to be eligible for the designation by NCTA which is the sole two-year degree program of the University of Nebraska system.
