Loriann Lindner is equine speaker Nov. 14

Curtis, Neb. – Horse enthusiasts are invited to Curtis on Monday, Nov. 14 for a 1-hour program by Loriann Lindner, ranch manager of Myers Performance Horses at St. Onge, S.D.

Lindner, formerly with the Haythorn Ranch at Arthur, Neb., was an adjunct instructor in equine marketing at the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture and moved to the Myers' operation in 2013. The enterprise is home of the famous stallion Frenchman's Guy.

Lindner's visit is hosted by the NCTA Veterinary Technology division. The program will be from 5 to 6 p.m. at the Vet Tech Amphitheater. Lindner is an animal science graduate of South Dakota State University. Her career has included work as a veterinary assistant, horse trainer and small business owner.

Information is available from Judy Bowmaster-Cole, NCTA vet tech assistant professor, at 308-367-5282.
